

VALENTINITY.

To the Editors and Patrons of the Hartford Herald.

With this issue of the HERALD, my connection with it ceases. I have sold the entire property to Messrs. M. H. Rhoads and Frank L. Folts, including its appurtenances and franchises.

I have been implicated in this course on account of my continued ill health, which has rendered me for a long time unable to give it such attention as it deserves. In severing my connection with the HERALD, I point with commendable pride to the fact that, having found the HERALD under the most adverse circumstances, I have maintained its continuous publication, with one or two exceptions, to the present time; and during that time, have used every effort, and what ability I possessed, to give the people of Ohio county a paper worthy of their intelligence and support.

To those who have stood by the HERALD through its various vicissitudes, it would be ungrateful in me to fail to tender them the expression of my most profound regard. Our connection indeed has been of the most agreeable character, and I hope they will continue their friendship and appreciation unbroken to the new firm, Messrs. Rhoads and Folts. These gentlemen are determined to make the HERALD the equal of the best county paper in the State; they are peculiarly adapted to succeed in the various channels of reputable journalism, being gentlemen of culture, energy and moral worth.

The new firm will carry out in good faith, all the pledges and contracts of the old firm, and the patrons of the HERALD need entertain no doubt of their ability to do so.

All accounts, and other claims due the HERALD up to this date, are payable to me.

I cannot close this valedictory and sever my connection with the paper, without tendering my sincere thanks to Judge John O'Flaherty. For several months past, he has virtually edited the HERALD and conducted the business of the office, and it is unnecessary for me to add that his paper has been a bright, new paper.

He is one of the best newspaper men in the State, and but for his assistance, the patrons would have been deprived of the benefits of a live, wide-awake, local paper for the past nine months.

With great, good wishes for all concerned, and hoping that all my former years may be happy and prosperous, I make my final bow in retirement from the field of newspaper labor.

J. P. BARRETT.

OUR REVERSES.

The failure of the people to heartily respond to the demands of Democratic leaders in the late election, principally due to the growing intelligence of the masses. A large majority of the people generally, or that portion which is called the "rank and file" of the party, is as well informed in the science of government, and has as comprehensive ideas of the principles of political economy, as have the so-called leaders of their members.

every whim and grade of opinion, so disgusted the people that the conclusion was easily arrived at that the relegation of these leaders to the great to private life would be no irrefragable loss.

The people are greater, and more conservative than their parties, and for that reason are, individually, opposed to extremes, and in the occasional party pressure brought to bear would more frequently abandon the ignorant and extreme leaders to defeat. The conservation of the masses is opposed to the false staidness involved in the free trade dogma, and to the class legislation of a purely protective tariff.

A uniform reduction of the tariff, with what incidental protection such reduction offers is the only tariff proposition, which will satisfy the people, hence a business like view must be taken of the question, there are many articles on the schedule, which might well be let alone, with out any detriment to the interests of the laboring classes, or the general consumer; there are other articles which can bear very great reduction, and at the same time be sufficiently remunerative to the manufacturer. This view of the matter does not comport with any proposition to make a horizontal reduction, and in this regard, Mr. Morrison failed to meet the requirements of the public; and to such failure, he may easily trace his defeat, it is but the logical sequence of an attempt to perform a political absurdity. Mr. Hurd may conceivably cease without end, the only satisfactory result, which can be assigned for his former and recent defeat is, that the people of his district do not believe in his incoherent utterances on a question which he undertakes as well as he. Had Mr. Carlisle been silent on the matter of Federal aid, which was not made a test of party fealty, his majority would have been greater. To similar causes may be attributed the many reverses of the recent elections. It is time to call a halt, right about, and be in accord with the people.

THE MEANING CLEAR.

It is a well known fact, that Hon. Henry D. McHenry, of the Federal Senate, is not a member of the Democratic party, and is not a member of the Democratic party, and is not a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

He is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party, and is a member of the Democratic party.

his absence. His clear head and master-hand are sorely needed on the Courier-Journal.

OUR PEOPLE should read the notice of the committee appointed to send delegations to Texas. Large and small quantities will be taken. The citizens of San Sabu county are in a deplorable condition; years of drought have exhausted every means of support. The Lord has blessed us with plenty, and from our abundance we should contribute liberally. Answer the call. Send what you can to the committee.

LOCAL NOTES.

"Skeaky-neck"—a drinker of mean white.

Martin is the "Bum" Jeweler in this part of the State.

Mortis is selling watches cheaper than any man in America.

An able article from Mr. Henry Tinsley, of Covington, is crowded out this week.

Mr. J. C. Riley has received a fresh coat of paint to his recently purchased residence.

The "Traveler Bangle" is all the rage in 1886—look out for your diamonds and bangles.

Ladies' hats can be bought at half price—after next Monday at Anderson's Bazaar.

The people are rushing to get those tickets, and cheap goods, at T. M. Smith's.

Anderson's Bazaar will reduce the prices in their military department next Monday.

If the present rush continues at T. M. Smith's, goods by the train load will be required.

Don't forget to bring in your old clock and have them put in running order for winter.

H. P. Taylor delivered on head of oxen at Uniontown last week. He received very fair prices.

The ice cream and soda water days have gone—now the saddest are yet to come—the "freezing bangle" days.

A very interesting communication from Capt. R. K. Cox, was received too late for this issue, but will appear next week.

Of all the sad words of tongue or pen, the saddest are these, it might have been, Don't say that, but go to Smith's and get a ticket.

The misplaced clock which we advertised some weeks ago, was promptly exchanged. The right clock is now in possession of the proper owner.

If you get no ticket, you get no premium, and when you see your neighbor having that fine machine, won't you be sorry then? It's at T. M. Smith's.

Correspondents will confer a great favor upon the editor and types of this paper, by writing and punctuating as clearly as possible, do not forget to sign and address their communications.

It will pay all our readers to persevere very carefully, the article elsewhere copied from the Southern Farmer, and dressed to that dissipationaire, and reproduced herein because it is of very great value to everyone, containing most important scientific facts very plainly put.

Dr. J. S. Coleman has returned from Curdsville, at which place he had been conducting a protracted meeting. There were 22 additions to the church, 14 of them heads of families, the remainder have arrived at the age of majority. Dr. Coleman's visit was a great light at the kind reception of him by the people.

If you have anything to sell, or want to buy anything; if you have lost or found; if you are in a hurry, or want to know the way by advertising in the HERALD. The HERALD goes everywhere, and is read by everybody. If the people don't see your name, they think you are not in business and go elsewhere.

Our stock of ladies' hats, notwithstanding the large quantity of hats, will sell good. We propose to close them out at whatever they will bring. We are determined not to carry over any millinery, if we have to sell ladies' hats at twenty-five cents apiece. Our trimmer Miss Black, will return to her home in Cincinnati in a few weeks. If you haven't yet supplied yourself with a hat, you ought to call before the choice goods are all selected.

Our stock of ladies' hats, notwithstanding the large quantity of hats, will sell good. We propose to close them out at whatever they will bring. We are determined not to carry over any millinery, if we have to sell ladies' hats at twenty-five cents apiece. Our trimmer Miss Black, will return to her home in Cincinnati in a few weeks. If you haven't yet supplied yourself with a hat, you ought to call before the choice goods are all selected.

pulling one hinge off the door and shook the plastering off the ceiling. After recovering from a swoon, we went to the window of the way, and found out that the gentleman had taken a drink of Owensboro sour milk; and we were somewhat surprised. A man is ready to do anything, kill his grand-mother, or do anything else astonishing, when he gets on the outside of an Owensboro "Skeaky-neck".

CROMWELL DEPARTMENT.

THOS. CROMWELL.

Lost some of the readers of the HERALD might think that we were sleeping or had gone West. It is our pleasant duty to say that we are all here, doing a fair business, and in good health and moderately hopeful and happy.

Mr. Elmore Angles is going to Arkansas in a few days with the view of making his fortune there, having had good West. It is our pleasant duty to say that we are all here, doing a fair business, and in good health and moderately hopeful and happy.

Mr. James P. Miller met with a very painful if not dangerous accident one day last week while hauling saw-logs.

Mr. John A. Allison, of Greenview, was in town the first of the week, and is just as jolly and full of fun as of old.

Miss Jennie Steele, who has been visiting friends and relatives at Kentucky for several months, returned home last week.

Prof. Foster is conducting a very successful school at Stony Point. Prof. Foster possesses all the attributes of success.

Frank Felix wants to know who A. V. Thompson comes to town so often on Monday morning, unless it is to go to a house. Is Frank jealous?

Mrs. C. P. Hale, of Calhoun, who has been visiting friends and relatives in Horton and other points of all counties for the past four weeks, returned home last Saturday.

Mrs. Laura Kuykendall and her husband, William, of Woodbury, returned home the first of the week, with her mother, Mrs. Miskiff, of this place, returned home last week, accompanied by her mother, who will remain during the winter.

Thanksgiving Sermon. Rev. L. E. Campbell, will preach Thanksgiving Sermon at the Methodist Church, in Hartford on Thursday, November 12th. The pastor and members of the church, request that the day be generally observed, that the bachelors be married, and all other church members. This would be right and proper, and we trust the request will be complied with.

Church Matters. Dr. H. M. Foster, Presiding Elder of Owensboro district, held the Quarterly meeting of the Boone Circuit, at Liberty on Friday, the 12th inst. There were 22 additions to the church, 14 of them heads of families, the remainder have arrived at the age of majority. Dr. Coleman's visit was a great light at the kind reception of him by the people.

If you have anything to sell, or want to buy anything; if you have lost or found; if you are in a hurry, or want to know the way by advertising in the HERALD. The HERALD goes everywhere, and is read by everybody. If the people don't see your name, they think you are not in business and go elsewhere.
